

Giants Overwhelm Braves, Who Find Rube Marquard Stanch When Pressed--Phillies Defeat Dodgers

BRAVES CAN'T HIT MARQUARD WHEN HITS MEAN RUNS

Thirteen Safeties Give Them Only Three Tallies—Ten Giants Score.

JAMES KNOCKED OUT OF BOX; LIKEWISE TYLER

The Giants won easily in Boston yesterday and then left for the West. They won one game in the Hub, tied one and lost one. Because the Reds beat St. Louis, the New Yorkers took the trail still in last place. The Phillies defeated the Brooklyn, taking second place to themselves, with Brooklyn and Boston tied for third place.

Yesterday's Results.
New York-Boston (Cold weather). Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Games were scheduled for only New York and Philadelphia yesterday in the American League and those were called off. Fans who went to the Polo Grounds were confronted by a "no game" sign, the reason why, it is assumed, being that it was too cold and windy. It was a disagreeable day, though not as much so as Wednesday, when a game was played. Wet grounds interfered in Philadelphia.

Yesterday's Results.
New York-Boston (Cold weather). Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

DODGERS NOT LUCKY, SO SLIP DOWN A PEG

Things Break Just Right for Mayor and Phillies From Start to Finish.

FLUKE BOUNDS KILL HITS

Brooklyn can down Philadelphia as easily as a tipster tosses off his night-cap. But Brooklyn can't trim Erskine Mayer, evidently. At least Mayer is the reason why those Dodgers are not now on the second rung of the National League ladder instead of the selfsame Phillies. Mayer took the last game of the Eastern Field series by a score of 2 to 1 yesterday afternoon.

Mayer was a lucky young gentleman throughout yesterday's bleak afternoon. He found in Appleton, one of Brooklyn's rookie twirlers, just about the toughest opposition he is likely to meet in a season's journey. Appleton should have been a shutout. Two runs never should have beaten the Flatbush Philanthropists. But Erskine Mayer lucked it.

Erskine spoiled the game for Appleton in the fourth inning. Two bad errors were chiefly responsible, though as many battery faults edged the thing along. Appleton's first base runner, on Becker, Appleton complicated it with a wild pitch that sent Beals to third. Otto Miller, who was off color all day, might have been a runner to one base if he had been on the alert; indeed he even might have blocked the wild pitch. Cravath then walked. Nishoff forced out Woodley, but Becker's bullet on the out. Luderus' out sent Nishoff to second. He counted when Miller muffed the third strike of Weiser and then threw wildy past Daubert.

Barring this inning only one Quaker got as far as third, and that one who scored. Nothing that remotely resembled a Brooklyn rally was in the scoring. No two of the six hits that Appleton allowed came in any one inning. Two came with none out, and the rest were scattered over the game.

NEWARK, June 3.—Harry Smith, the catcher-manager of the Newark International League club, received his unconditional release today from President George L. Solomon. Smith was paid in full and left the club's office to return to his home in Massillon, Ohio. President Solomon said that Smith and the club were severing relations on the best of terms. He declared the club is finding it so hard to meet its obligations it is going to let him go in some direction or to the wall.

Because of its tottering finances it was rumored that the club will be transferred to another city, probably Harrisburg. Pa. Solomon said that he had been considering transferring the club, but had no plans formulated. He said the club had lost nearly $5,000 since the beginning of the season.

MANAGER DISPENSED WITH SO AS TO CUT EXPENSES—NEARLY $5,000 LOST ALREADY.

NEWARK, June 3.—Harry Smith, the catcher-manager of the Newark International League club, received his unconditional release today from President George L. Solomon. Smith was paid in full and left the club's office to return to his home in Massillon, Ohio. President Solomon said that Smith and the club were severing relations on the best of terms. He declared the club is finding it so hard to meet its obligations it is going to let him go in some direction or to the wall.

Because of its tottering finances it was rumored that the club will be transferred to another city, probably Harrisburg. Pa. Solomon said that he had been considering transferring the club, but had no plans formulated. He said the club had lost nearly $5,000 since the beginning of the season.

SCHEIDER STOPS CARDINALS.

Meanwhile Umpire Byron Connors Debating Society.

St. Louis, June 3.—Schneider held the Cardinals to five hits to-day and the Reds won, 5 to 2. Perdue was chased after the sixth by Fletcher. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Club	W	L	Draw	Runs	Runs Allowed	Per cent.
Chicago	10	3	0	100	50	.769
Philadelphia	9	4	0	85	60	.692
Brooklyn	8	5	0	75	70	.538
Boston	7	6	0	65	80	.462
St. Louis	6	7	0	55	90	.408
Pittsburgh	5	8	0	45	100	.346
Cincinnati	4	9	0	35	110	.269
New York	3	10	0	25	120	.231
Games lost	15	15	0	15	15	.500

To-day's Schedule.

Boston, June 3.—Rube Marquard helped the Giants register a 10 to 3 victory over the Braves in the final game of the series here to-day. It was a lucky thing for the celebrated twirler that his teammates had on their batting clothes, otherwise the Braves surely would have gone down to defeat. The Braves pounded Marquard all over the lot, but when it came to turning hits into runs they were all at sea. Thirteen hits were made by the world's champions to get their three scant tallies. It was indeed a lucky game for the Braves to get away with.

Marquard was hit hard throughout the entire game. In the third frame three hits in a row filled the sacks with nobody out. He got out of the hole, but the Braves seven frames before they could pull a man over and then they drove in three. Tyler's double, followed later by extra hits by Fletcher and Fitzpatrick, made a single netted the counters.

Big Bill James lasted only two innings. The Giants greeted him in the opening frame by making the bases burn. Burns walked and after Doyle died, George went to third on Lohr's double. Fletcher's easy grounder was booted by Fitzpatrick and Burns reached first on a throw. Tyler's double, followed by a single to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice. Tyler was just as ineffective for the Giants got three more in the third. Doyle fouled out. Lohr doubled, but later was run down at third on Fletcher's sacrifice. Burns doubled, singled to center, sending Fletcher to third. The two men on bases scored when Merkle drove his double through Smith, which was not out of the hole. Merkle came home on Burns' sacrifice.

Not satisfied with the day's scoring, the Giants got the total by three runs more in the ninth. Marquard beat out a bunt and Burns singled. Both moved up on Doyle's sacrifice. Magee robbed Lohr of a home and Brannan, who relieved Fletcher, drove both runners home by a well placed single. As a result of Crutcher's wild peg and Whaling's poor throw, Brannan and Robertson tripped, but was nailed at the plate. The score:

NEW YORK (N. Y.) BOSTON (N. Y.)
Runs—New York, 10; Boston, 3.
Hits—New York, 13; Boston, 13.
Errors—New York, 1; Boston, 1.
Batteries—New York, Marquard and Crutcher; Boston, Lohr and Brannan.

Philadelphia-Washington (Wet grounds; both games).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Chicago, 10; Boston, 3 (first game). Brooklyn, 3; Buffalo, 1 (second game). St. Louis, 3; Chicago, 2. Kansas City, 1. Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

SEASON AND UPHAM PITCH WINNING BALL

Former Backed Up by Heavy Hitting in First; Latter Tight in Second.

SCORES 10 TO 7 AND 3 TO 1

Yesterday's Results.
Brooklyn, 10; Buffalo, 7 (first game). Brooklyn, 3; Buffalo, 1 (second game). St. Louis, 3; Chicago, 2. Kansas City, 1. Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

To-day's Schedule.

Buffalo, June 3.—The Tip Tops took both games of to-day's double header with the Buffeds, winning the first by a score of 10 to 7 and the second by 3 to 1.

Brooklyn gave Seaton a comfortable lead in the first game, when Schulz was driven from the mound in the third inning. Ehmkke's nonchalant too effective Seaton was hit hard, but his teammates slugging kept him out of danger.

Bill Upham pitched great ball in the second game, but he gave up three runs in the first inning. He pitched equally as well, and was beaten practically on a fluke. In the fourth inning Ehmkke's nonchalant too effective Seaton was hit hard, but his teammates slugging kept him out of danger.

Bill Upham pitched great ball in the second game, but he gave up three runs in the first inning. He pitched equally as well, and was beaten practically on a fluke. In the fourth inning Ehmkke's nonchalant too effective Seaton was hit hard, but his teammates slugging kept him out of danger.

WATT TO CAPTAIN COLUMBIA.

Robert G. Watt of Kenosha, N. J., was elected unanimously to captain the next Columbia baseball team at the meeting of the team yesterday. By accepting the honor Watt settled once and for all the question of who would lead the college ball for the big league. He is a Junior in college and has played several years since his freshman year, being the captain of the team in 1914.

Followers of baseball have hailed him as the best product of Columbia since the days of the great college players. He is a native of Kenosha, Wis., and is a member of the Kenosha Athletic Club. He is a member of the Kenosha Athletic Club. He is a member of the Kenosha Athletic Club.

ABERG FINDS ROLLER A TOUGH PROPOSITION

American Keeps on Defensive From Start and Never Is in Danger.

Alexander Aberg, who has been winning all his matches with ridiculous ease in the international wrestling tournament at the Manhattan Opera House, met a different sort of proposition last night when he tackled Dr. F. R. Roller of the American team. Roller was a customer for the gigantic foreigner and held his own all the way. He kept on the defensive from the start and never was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown.

Alexander Aberg, who has been winning all his matches with ridiculous ease in the international wrestling tournament at the Manhattan Opera House, met a different sort of proposition last night when he tackled Dr. F. R. Roller of the American team. Roller was a customer for the gigantic foreigner and held his own all the way. He kept on the defensive from the start and never was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown.

Alexander Aberg, who has been winning all his matches with ridiculous ease in the international wrestling tournament at the Manhattan Opera House, met a different sort of proposition last night when he tackled Dr. F. R. Roller of the American team. Roller was a customer for the gigantic foreigner and held his own all the way. He kept on the defensive from the start and never was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown. Aberg was in danger of being thrown.

MANHATTAN HANDICAP ALLOTTED.

The allowances for the handicap yacht race of the Manhattan Yacht Club to-morrow are:

First Division—Annis and Amarat, 100 lbs. extra; Carolina, 100 lbs. extra; Sully,